Spring 2012

The National Citizens Police Academy Association Conference 2012 is Almost Here...Are You Attending?

by: Tom Barry
Conference Committee Chair

We are looking forward to seeing old friends and making new ones here in Decatur in April. This should be a great conference and the classes offered should be informative. Of particular interest is the Traffic Homicide three-part class. But, we don't expect you to spend all your time in the classroom.

Monday night we will go to Pt. Mallard and have two hot air balloons that will offer tether rides.

There will be four police cars on display Tuesday in front of the Holiday Inn from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. The cars will include a restored Texas Highway Patrol Mustang, an Alabama Highway Patrol Mustang, a 2010 Corvette from Madison City Police and a car from Florence. We will hopefully add others as time goes by.

Jerraud Powers, a cornerback for the Indianapolis Colts, will be at the Tuesday night hospitality and sign autographs. He is expected to bring a Colts jacket for the silent auction. A football signed by Coach Nick Saban will also be offered.

Do you remember the movie "Walking Tall"? Not the remake with "The Rock" as the Sheriff, but the original movie. The Buford Pusser Museum will be on site selling memorabilia of the late Sheriff.

If you have not yet submitted your registration for the conference, please use the latest version of the form enclosed or the one on the national website.

We have received registrations from all over, folks. Sometimes the best part of a conference is the networking opportunity afforded from meeting people from other areas of the country and discussing issues. You will have that opportunity here in Decatur.

Come and have fun while you learn something. See you in April!
