“And They're Off...”

Yes, Lexington, Kentucky, the Horse Capital of the World, is off and running to host the best National Citizen Police Alumni Association Conference from May 11 – 14, 2015. We plan to promote education by presenting some of the best speakers in the Bluegrass, all experts in their fields. The reason our citizens join the CPA is to learn...to become better residents and make the world a better place. That is exactly what we are doing in Lexington...making it fun to learn with a lot of hands-on activities and old-fashioned southern hospitality with every step you take while in Lexington. Did I mention how lush the landscape is throughout Kentucky in May? Spring is absolutely breathtakingly beautiful in Lexington, Kentucky.

During your first night you can kick up your heels at a good ol' Kentucky B-B-Q at the Fifth-Third Pavilion, right across the street from your hotel, which will include music, clogging and our award winning Mounted Police Unit! You will have the opportunity to meet and talk to a Kentucky racehorse jockey and meet our Mounted Police Unit and their horses on Hotel Hospitality Night. We have the “WOW” factor planned to show you how much we love having you visit us and honoring us with the opportunity to host the NCPAA Conference in Lexington.

All day Wednesday we will travel by bus to four historical Kentucky landmarks and you will experience top notch law enforcement official speakers at each venue. You will know you are loved and you will never forget Lexington!

Take advantage of Lexington's free downtown trolley service. Request a free Lexington Visitor Guide by contacting www.visitlex.com. The Downtown Lexington Hilton Hotel will be your home away from home and we promise their service is exemplar in their newly renovated rooms.

We will post the 2015 conference registration form on our website at www.lexcpaaa.org shortly. We are so humbled and thankful to have the honor to host you, our friends, from the NCPAA. We pledge to make your visit memorable and leave you wanting to return to Lexington again and again to enjoy all we have to offer in the Bluegrass.
