Arizona + NCPAA + Outstanding Training Conference = An Awesome Experience!

by: Dick Powers
NCPAA President

THREE GOALS TO ACCOMPLISH:

The fast approaching 2014 NCPAA Membership and Training Conference had three goals in its planning:

FIRST AND FOREMOST:

To provide expanded and enhanced class offerings in areas different from past conferences. This includes re-establishing the instruction of the three basic classes that form the foundation of CPAs. This will be beneficial to those agencies wanting to start a CPA or for those who got away from them and want to begin again. Note: In a twist to the requests for these foundation classes, the NCPAA is currently assisting the Staffordshire Police, of the United Kingdom in re-starting a CPA after it was discontinued some years ago. Whether Chief Inspector Michael Boyle is able to attend our conference is dependent on current budget issues. Also, only at this conference will you be part of the detailed steps and discussions offered, relating to the Shooting of Congresswoman Gifford's case investigation.

SECOND- BUDGET SAVING:

Our goal is to make this conference the most affordable and achievable for all of our Law Enforcement and Alumni community members. At this conference, you are offered: Great room rates, Free full breakfast with your room reservations and a Budget easing registration fee (Note: your conference registration fee also includes your annual dues paid in full). These cost savings have all been Please see "CONFERENCE" on page 2
