

2021 CONFERENCE

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA | OCTOBER 18-21, 2021

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Sheriff Garry McFadden

Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office (MCSO)

Sheriff McFadden, along with three barbers, founded the Cops & Barbers Program, which President Obama recognized as "one of the top ten initiatives increasing meaningful relationships in communities."

As a detective with Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department (CMPD), McFadden was featured on America's Most Wanted, The First 48, The Justice Files and was a contributor to People magazine and other national media outlets.

On June 14, 2016, Investigative Discovery channel presented "I Am Homicide," a docuseries highlighting a few of Sheriff McFadden's most complex homicide cases as a homicide detective with CMPD. The debut of this national and international television show allowed Sheriff McFadden to be the first African American Law Enforcement Officer to have his own television show. As a result, he has received many awards and recognitions.
